Guidelines For Writing Your Testimony

“Therefore, if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold all things are become new.” (2 Corinthians 5:17)

A testimony is you telling others how you were changed from death to life –how you were saved. This experience cannot be fully described; but, you should tell the reality of it to the glory of Christ. A true spiritual change means that you have been given spiritual life by God. This new spiritual life brings about changes in your thoughts, feelings, and behavior. You should be able to describe some inward changes and some visible outward changes. The goal of your testimony is to state your conversion (or salvation) in order to bring glory to Jesus, to show that you meet the Biblical requirements for Church membership, and to encourage your own soul by pointing to a true spiritual work. Here are some basic guidelines to help you in writing your testimony:

1. Write your testimony in your words. It is Christ’s work and your story. Use your own words to tell others what has happened to you.
2. You will need to talk about the conviction of sin. That is, tell how you came to know that you are a sinner in the sight of God and that you need a Savior.
3. Tell us about coming to understand that Christ was the only Savior and the only One who could save you from your sins.
4. Tell us about your repentance from your sins and of coming to faith and trust in Jesus alone as your Savior and Lord. (Note: exact date and time are not necessary.)
5. Tell enough to clearly describe what Jesus has done in your life. To be saved means that God has changed you; so, you need to be able to give some information about that change. However, do not give too much detail about this. You don’t need a complete detailed history of your life; just a plain and simple testimony of your conversion to Christ. It should be at about one-half page typed, or about one full page that is hand-written. It should not be longer than about one page typed, or two pages that are hand-written.

After the pastors receive your testimony, they will review it, and then distribute an approved copy to Church members only. Be very glad and rejoice in the salvation of God and ask for the help of the Holy Spirit as you write your testimony.

A Worksheet is attached to help you get your thoughts together. Fill out the worksheet; then, write a brief testimony.
